MEET THE DIRECTOR

We'd like to introduce you to the directors who are slated to lead this season's productions. First up, Jim Hopper, director of HONEYMOON IN VEGAS, our April/May production.

Jim enjoys plays as well as upbeat musicals, which is why he chose to submit to direct HONEYMOON IN VEGAS. He states, "I was looking for a modern musical, stumbled upon the music for VEGAS, and it immediately had me hooked. Plus, Jason Robert Brown's works have been some of my favorites over the last few years. Although I've listened to the music constantly, I've never seen the show fully performed." With this in mind, he feels he is challenging himself to create the show in his vision, while also trying to stay true to the original Brown and Bergman intent, as well as adding some of the cheesiness of the 1992 Nicolas Cage/Sarah Jessica Parker movie. Jim is looking for people that are very positive and enjoy collaborating with others to make a fun show for all to enjoy, while we take audiences from New York to Vegas to Hawaii. For specific audition requirements for HONEYMOON IN VEGAS visit www.barnplayhouse.org.

Jim came to the Barn 16 years ago, and though he sometimes wanders throughout the theater community, he always returns to what he considers his theater home. He has appeared in 11 Barn shows, assistant directed twice and made his Barn directorial debut six years ago with A FLEA IN HER EAR. Jim has also served on the Barn's Board of Directors in various capacities over the last 10 years, including last year's term as President.
