

MEET THE DIRECTOR

Marianne Green (Director of RUMORS) is very happy to be making her debut at Dramatuers as Director of RUMORS. This is the 27th show she has directed which list includes a mix of comedies, dramas, and musicals. Marianne is a proud member of Actors Equity Association as well as a former member of SAG/AFTRA and has extensive performing experience in theatres on the east coast as well as for cruise lines, in plays, musicals, commercials, industrials, and radio voiceovers.

Marianne became interested in directing for Dramatuers after seeing some of its past productions and hearing about its great “people” reputation. She submitted RUMORS as one of the shows she was interested in directing because she’s a Neil Simon aficionado both for directing and performing, and RUMORS, while being set in 1989, still is a farce that includes comedic timing and energy appreciated (and needed) today.
